

Nilanga Police Mediates Successfully , "Trivial Reason For Discord"

Bhagyashri and Vishal Reunited

The family of Vishal and Bhagyashri was disturbed for trivial reason. The discord was stretched to the level of separation. The nilanga police helped the duo to restore their family life.

Bhagyashri a daughter of Mr. Sunil Thorat from nilanga got married to Mr Vishal Baburao Kamble from Mumbai as per the tradition in 2013. The family life of bhagyashri and vishal was going on very well, however after some days, there was some misunderstanding between the two on some trivial reason the matter was given some unnecessary importance making it an issue of the family status. They even attempted to divorce at some monetary settlement .Bhagyashri was not happy with the settlement. She wanted to live with Vishal, however, some of the family members did not want it. The discord between the two families was stretched further. Bhagyashri returned to her parents and started living with them she also lodged a complaint of exploitation against her in laws at thane in September. Vishal and bhagyashri were counseled together at "Mahila Takrar Nivaran Kendra, Latur ". However vishal and his family was aggressive about the divorce. In between, Ms. Priyanka Aghav, PSI, Nilanga Police Station took over the case. She contacted the Kamble Family. She called them to Nilanga. She counseled the two families. Officer elaborated / explained how a trivial reason had disturbed the two families. Counseling was successful. Vishal and Bhagyashri promise to restore the lost family health and started living together. Police played a crucial role in uniting the couple and families.
